

MALKI MUSEUM'S 22th ANNUAL

AGAVE HARVEST AND AGAVE TASTING

AGAVE WAS A STAPLE FOOD ITEM OF THE CAHUILLA AND OTHER SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA INDIAN TRIBES. LEARN HOW THE CAHUILLA GATHERED AND COOKED THIS TASTY STAPLE. JOIN US IN HARVESTING, THEN TASTING THIS NATIVE FOOD ALONG WITH A TRADITIONAL MEAL.

HARVEST DATES:

10:00 am on Saturday, April 1, 2017 AND 10:00 Sunday April 2, 2017
Cahuilla Tewanet Overlook on the Palms to Pines Highway (74) above Palm Desert

$10 per person DONATION accepted

This twenty-second annual event is sponsored by the Malki Museum Association. Reservations should be made by calling the museum at (909-849-7289). Honorary Malki Museum Member Daniel McCarthy will demonstrate and lead the harvesting of agave.

FOOD TASTING:

11:00 am on Saturday, April 8, 2017
Malki Museum / 11-795 Malki Road / Banning, CA

Cost: $10.00 adults; donations accepted for those under 16

The agave will be cooked, starting Thursday evening, in a traditional roasting pit, and served along with other delicious native foods at Malki Museum at Noon on April 8th. Those who arrive early (about 10 AM) can see the agave removed from the roasting pit in which it was cooked. All are welcome; reservations should be made by calling the museum to make sure enough food is prepared.
